Part 2 Magic 非人物主线

About a place that I have been to, what I can think of first is CT which is a small coastal place located in the northern part of China. I went there with my family about 5 years ago and that was really what I always enjoy.

Well, there are generally two reasons why I like this coastal place so much. 15

View: 80

To start with, I could see the cucurbit blossom which is famous in this place, the beautiful sea in the coastal place and also a small garden near the sea. Some trees like cucurbit seedling 秧苗 are also in this wonderful garden. I saw the birds flying over the surface of the sea and actually I can't tell the names of those birds in either English or Chinese. This gave me a comfortable and peaceful feeling.

Activities: 83

On top of that, we did something that we really enjoyed but seldom did at that time. For example, we rowed a small boat with pedals 船桨 to the place almost far away from the bank of the sea and we went fishing in the boat. We barbecued the small sea fish that we fished and it was really delicious for its fresh and unique taste. Besides, we also picked some cucurbits in the garden and tasted the cucurbit Blossom Cake.

Ending 46 (could be omitted)

I choose to talk about C T not only because it's a place that I really like most as the topic you gave me, but also for the reason that every time when I talk about it, I can still recall the happy moments at that time.

环球在线

Recall: imagine

At that time: in the future

Part 2 Magic 人物主线:用法同理于超级主线

Who, what, when, how:

There are some people that I really like but the one who I think of immediately after seeing this topic and who I like pretty much is a dancer called Wang Siyu who is also a little famous dancer in my city. She looks pretty beautiful with dark eyebrows, big eyes and a small mouth and not to exaggerate, we can't see her real age from her appearance. Actually, I met her two months ago and another friend of mine introduced us to each other.

Being intelligent

There are generally 2 reasons why I'm interested in her and like her so much. To start with, she is really intelligent and although she is not famous all over the country, she is more intelligent than many other dancers according to what I know about her. The reason is that she cannot only dance in a variety of ways but also master abundant theoretical knowledge about dancing and can apply those theories (应用那些理论) to create some new type of dancing herself.

Being interesting and beautiful：

Another thing is that she is one of the most interesting people that I have seen. My reason is that when she was interviewed once at the local TV station, she answered all the questions in a pretty humorous way, bringing lots of happiness to the audiences including me. I become more interested in her because she has a strong sense of humor and due to the reason that she is quite beautiful both in appearance and in her heart. For example, she was so charitable that she gave some money and clothes to the needy 需要帮助的 children last year. She also went there to help those people who were homeless.

Ending：

I choose to talk about her not only because she is… as the topic you gave but also for the reason that every time when I talk about her, I can feel she is one of my idols. I can learn a lot from her spirits and behaviors.

22. Tea and coffee 茶与咖啡

- Do people in your country prefer to drink tea or coffee?

  Basically, tea is what majority of people in my country prefer despite the fact that coffee is also quite popular among people at my age. For instance, many seniors in my country reject drinking coffee completely due to their habits.

  Caffeine

- Do you prefer to serve tea or coffee to your guests at home?

  Well, it totally depends. I may prepare both of them but I often ask my guests what they prefer. If they prefer tea, I may of course serve tea to them.

- When did you drink tea or coffee last time?

环球在线

Well, I drank coffee simply yesterday when one of my friends bought a cup of coffee for me by the way when she bought coffee in Starbucks. In fact, I also drank some tea with my family at home the day before yesterday.

23.Handwriting 手写

- Do you like typing or handwriting?

  I do prefer typing to writing by hands for the reason that my handwriting is always illegible. In recent years, we usually type for our homework or type for communicating with others. Hence, from my point of view most of people especially young people can type faster than writing by hands.

- Do you think typing can replace handwriting?/ How do you see the importance of handwriting?

  On majority of occasions, I do believe that typing will replace handwriting one day due to its great convenience. On the other hand, on some extremely formal occasions handwriting will still play the same vital role as before like signing some important files.

- What are the differences between typing and handwriting?

  What we write by typing can be stored electronically, which means we can easily edit what we write, like layout designing, printing and sending emails. If we want to edit what we write, probably what we can try is to write it again.

- When do children begin to learn how to write in your country?How did you learn to write?

  Well, normally from the primary school, students start to learn that and it's also a leading way in which children learn to write. Personally, I also learned to write via the classes taught by the Chinese teacher in the primary school.

- Do you think people's handwriting can show their personality?

To some extent, I agree. What I believe is that if one's handwriting is neat, clean and well-organized, he or she must be a very careful and patient person. If one's handwriting is quite illegible, he or she might be careless and uneducated.

25. Living area/the area you live in 居住区域

- Do you like living in your living area?

  Yes, I think so. My living area is both relatively quiet and convenient enough for me to live in. I cannot only go shopping in the nearby supermarkets and department stores but also enjoy quite reasonable afforestation in my living area.

- Has there been any change in your living place recently?

  No, to tell the truth, there hasn't been much change in my living place recently. However, around five years ago there were no water fountains or fitness facilities in my living place while we got them immediately after then.

- Do you know any celebrity in your living area?

  Well no, although I know that there are some famous people living in my neighborhood, Idon't really know those people since we don't live in the same building and have no chance to meet each other.

- Where do you like to go within your living area?

  Within my living are, I like going to the grassland adjacent to the water fountains in the community for the reason that it's like a small park which is picturesque for us to enjoy the short free time.

- Do you have many public holidays? Is that enough?/Do you think you/people need more holidays? (答案人称灵活转换即可)

  I'm a student and although I have two long summer and winter holidays, I still believe that my holidays are not long enough. I have so many plans in my holidays such as traveling all over the world and learning lots of new things.

- Which public holiday do you like most? Why?/Which one is the most important one?

  The holiday for Tomb Sweeping Day is the one that I like least. On that day, all people will go to some cemeteries to clean the tombs for their friends or in-laws who passed away. It is quite a sad day.

  OR

  Seriously, the public holiday for Spring Festival is the most significant one for China, a country with millions of immigrant workers. It is the time for reunion, which means millions of people will travel for thousands of miles to meet their family.

- How many public holidays are there in your country?

  Well, to tell the truth I can't tell the exact number at once for the reason that there are many public holidays in my country but it seems that nearly every month has a public holiday on average.

- How do you often spend your holidays?

  I often spend my holidays by traveling with my family or some close friends, which really brings me a sense of happiness especially after a long time's busy work/study. However, I also hope to enrich my holidays in the future.

rock music

rock and roll

What kinds of music do you like?

- There's no extremely specific sort for me, but I'm sure what I'm partial to is any music with a stimulating rhythm and full of enthusiasm. What arouses my interest is that I can feel more energetic and passionate in my study/work after listening to this kind of music.

Did you like the same kind of music with the music you liked during the childhood?

- As a matter of fact, the answer is negative. Being a child, I used to like some background music to the animation especially the light music which provided me with a sense of being peaceful, but I just change into another style now without being able to tell why in a precise way.

Do you like live music?

- Yes, I'm absorbed by live music, but my taste is a little different from other live music fans for the reason that I enjoy having outdoor live music instead of live music in the music hall. For instance, sometimes there is an outdoor live music held on the grassland or in the open air on campus.

30.Shoes 鞋

Sneakers, high heels, boots, Martin shoes, canvas shoes, sports shoes

- How often do you buy shoes?

  Every two or three months maybe, I am not quite sure about that. I buy shoes in fact when I really need them. For example, if I need to do some sports like tennis, of course I need a pair of tennis shoes which can greatly protect my ankle.

- What kind of shoes do you like?

环球在线

Since I am still a student in college, I like some casual shoes. Furthermore, they should be fashionable and not too expensive.

- Do you prefer comfortable shoes or fashionable shoes?

  If I can choose, I like to find some shoes that are both comfortable and fashionable. Actually, sneakers are something like that. There is no doubt that they are quite comfortable, and in my country among youngsters in my age they are very popular.

- Do you often buy shoes online?

  I often buy things online, but not shoes. Shoes are something special. What I mean is that before I can try them on, I cannot pay for them. I have to know whether they suit my feet or not first.

- Why do some people buy many pairs of shoes?

  First of all, they are rich, otherwise they cannot afford that. Some people buy many pairs of shoes, simply because they hope those shoes can match every piece of their clothes. Others buy many pairs of shoes probably since they see shoes as kind of collection.

31.Letter and email& postcard 书信、邮件&明信片

- Do you often write letters?

  Not frequently, normally I write emails for my work especially the projects

环球在线

For instance, when my professor/teacher/boss asks me to do some relevant jobs/when my teacher/professor asks me to do some relevant assignments, I may report to him via sending emails.

- Have you written any postcards?

  I used to receive many post cards from some of my friends who were fond of traveling to different cities. But I seldom write them to others. However, in recent years, I have more choices to travel, and I began to write post cards when I was in a new place. But I have to mention that I do not write to my friends, and in fact I write to myself.

- Did you write letters when you were little? To whom?

  Yes, when I was a student in the elementary school, I wrote letters to my best friend about what happened recently. That was what I can only remember about writing letters.

- Do you receive more letters or emails on your birthday?

  Well, it's interesting that I receive neither of them on account of the fact that almost everyone sends birthday greetings to their family and friends by means of either making a phone call or sending a message over Wechat which is popular means of communicating in my country now.

32. Taking photos 摄影

- Do you like taking photos?

  Yes, I often use my cellphone to take photos. And I like to share those photos with my friends via some social networking sites. I think nowadays quite a few young people like doing something like this.

- On what occasions do you often take photos?

环球在线

For example, if I see something interesting I like to use my camera to record it. And while I am traveling in a new place, I cannot stop taking photos of almost everything there, such as a cup of coffee, a bus stop and supermarket.

- How do you often keep your photos?

  I save most of my photos in my laptop. And sometimes I like to print some of them out, and paste them on the wall of my bedroom.

33.Weather 天气

- Do you like dry weather or wet weather?

  Frankly speaking, Idon't like too dry weather which does harm to the skin although I dislike too much humidity. If I can choose between them, I believe that will be exactly perfect for me. Anyway, we, humans, all need to adapt to the weather that we have.

- Do you often take raincoats/umbrellas with you?

  No, I don't often take them with me since there isn't a lot of rain my living city, but when I know there will be heavy rain according to the weather forecast, I will take my umbrella with me.

- How do rainy days/does such weather affect people's life?

  Well, rainy days affect people's life mainly due to the inconvenience of people's doing outdoor activities. Of course, sometimes rainy days also influence people's mood, I guess.

34.Movies 电影

- Do you like watching movies? What kind of movies?

I am a big fan of watching movies, and I like to watch many kinds of films like action movies, comedies, crime movies, and science fiction movies. Watching movies is a main way for me to kill my spare time.

环球在线

- How often do you go to cinema? With whom?

  I am a cinema-goer. I go to cinema every week. In most cases, I watch movies with my friends. And when we get together we often talk about some latest movies.

- Have movies that you like changed a lot?

  I think so. A few years ago, movies I liked most were comedies. At that time, I thought movies were what could make me laugh. However, now I prefer watching some feature movies. And obviously I believe that a good movie should be the one that can make me think.

35. Public transports/transportation 公共交通

- How do you often go to work or school?

  I usually go to school/work by subway. The reason is that my school/company is a little far away from my home, and taking subway is really fast and punctual. I do not want to be late for my school/work since I will be punished by my teacher/boss.

- How did you come here today?

  Today, I came by taxi. It is the first time for me to be here so I am not familiar with this place. Taking a taxi is always my first choice when I need to go to some places I have not been to before. The taxi drivers know every place in my city.

  (Therefore, I do not need to waste my time to find where I should go.)

  Carsick

- Do you often take public transports?

环球在线

Yes. I think most people in my city usually take public transports certainly including me. Specifically, I often take subway to go to school/work during weekdays as I mentioned before.

(I am quite familiar with the public transport system in my city.)

- What do you often do on public transports?

  I always wear my headset enjoying some music as most passengers do there. While wearing my headset, I feel as if I were isolated from other people no matter how crowded it is. I will completely concentrate on the music with exhilaration.

36.Drinking water 喝水

- Do you like drinking water? How often?

  I like drinking water and I drink water quite often. I was told that every day adults are supposed to drink at least 1.5 liter water, which is kind of very important for our health. Therefore, I would like to drink some water in every break between two classes.

- Is bottled water expensive in your city?

  Not at all. In fact, one bottled water as big as this (body language) usually costs us about 2 or 3 Yuan. I think it is affordable for almost everyone in my country. Of course, there is some high-end bottled water imported from EU like France, and the price of one bottle can be over 20 Yuan.

- Is bottled water different from tap water?

  Yes, absolutely. In my country, the tap water is not drinkable, and we can only use that for washing something like vegetables. Bottled water means drinking water, accordingly. And generally, there are two kinds of that, purified water and mineral water.

环球在线

- Do you have any experience of being thirsty?

  Yes. I am a big fan of doing sports, and after doing some sports with my friends, I will be in a sweat. And at that time, I feel very thirsty. A bottle of water is what I want badly of course.

+example:

There are some people that made me laugh happily but the one who I think of immediately after seeing this topic and who I like pretty much is a dancer called Wang Siyu who is also a little famous dancer in my city. She looks pretty beautiful with dark eyebrows, big eyes and a small mouth but not to exaggerate, we can't see her real age from her appearance. Actually, I met her two months ago, and a friend of mine introduced us to each other.

She is one of the most interesting people that I have seen and she could make me laugh a lot during my childhood. My reason is that when she was interviewed once at the local TV station, she answered all the questions in a pretty humorous way, bringing lots of happiness to the audiences including me.

Another thing is that once, we held a party at home and she showed a dance in a humorous way. What she did was funny enough, simply like a clown. That kind of movement really made me laugh for a while, and I do believe that I let off some steam when watching her show.

I choose to talk about her not only because she is a person that made me laugh happily but also for the reason that I can really get relaxed from watching her show and learn a lot from her spirits and ability, so I can say I appreciate her so much and regard her as one of my favorite idols.

Talking about a person who encouraged me and helped me to achieve your goal, I'd like to talk about my mum who helped me to learn how to cook. When I was a middle school student, I was quite interested in cooking, especially cooking some Chinese cuisines. In my family, my mother is responsible for cooking meals for all of us.

At that time, when she was cooking, I liked to stand in the kitchen watching her cooking.I showed her my interest in cooking by standing in kitchen and watching her cooking as frequently as I could. After that, she encouraged me to learn how to cook like this at beginning. Later, she decided to teach me some skills that she learned from my grandma. My mother's hometown is Sichuan Province so she is good at cooking Sichuan cuisines. She introduced lots of ingredients to me and some basic procedures for cooking. Then she wanted me to have a try and I tried for numerous times.

What I mentioned above could explain why I believe it was my mum who encouraged and helped to learn cooking which was also one of my goals at that time. Finally, I did a good job for cooking a fairly popular dish. After she tasted that, she realized that I got some talent in cooking. 29. A person (you know) who helps to protect the environment 环保者

The person that I'd like to say is my neighbor Mu Yang who is always passionate about environmental protection. I began to know her a couple of years ago and we first met each other at a community party. To tell the truth, she is really an environmentalist who I enjoy making friends with.

Actually, she has become an environmentalist for many years and my deepest memory about her helping to protect the environment is that two years ago she wrote a brochure regarding how an individual can do to protect the environment in the daily life. According to what she told me, individuals could do something for environmental protection in many ways such as saving resources like electricity by placing the refrigerator in a cool place, using chemicals as little as possible and recycling batteries in a proper way.

On top of that, around two years ago, she began to take part in some volunteer activities like removing plastic bags near the river bank in the spare time. Despite the fact that what she did seemed simple, it did take effects. The reason for her doing this is that she hoped that everyone could try his or her best to do something beneficial to the environment. Subsequently, humans would be closer to a better environment which is definitely indispensable for a better world.

35. Describe an important plant in your country 你们国家重要的植物

Frankly speaking, I don't often plant anything but I did plant something important. That was a pot of gardenia and I watched its growing process as well. I still remember the seed of gardenia was given by my close friend Lydia who is a fan of planting. Knowing that I'm not good at planting, she often comes to my home and gives a hand. That's why my gardenia grows pretty well.

It is regarded as an important plant for generally 2 reasons. To start with, in many places of my country when there is a special festival called Duanwu Festival/ Dragon Boat Festival, people may have the decoration of gardenia on the head or clothes since it has great important meaning of being fortunate and happy. Gardenia can stand for purity and kindness and in some formal ceremonies of my country people may use this plant to decorate the hall. Another importance of this plant is that gardenia can be used as a kind of Chinese medicine which is beneficial to people's physical health without any side effects.

Thus, when I planted this plant, I was excited as well. At the beginning, I just saw its seed which was put into the soil. After a period of time, the seed began to shoot and the color is purely green. Subsequently, I became more interested in this plant, watching the process even more closely than watching it at the beginning. The next scene of the process was that the leaves and stems grew relatively fast during several weeks. When the buds came into being, I felt really excited as if I were the mother of it, not to exaggerate. After that, I made a decision to take more care of it and waited for its elegant blossom.

Talking about staying healthy, most people would like to say playing sports is a good way. I totally agree with that. However, I do have another method for keeping healthy, cooking at home as frequently as I can. What I mean is that I always try my best not to eat out. I do have some reasons.

To start with, food safety is a serious issue in some places. Sometimes, we have no idea about what we eat. I mean for instance if we order some food like grilled mutton in fact we are not sure what we eat is mutton or not. Coverage of media exposed fake mutton, which was eventually meat of ducks. On top of that, food sold outside the home is too greasy, salty, sweet and spicy. Eating something like this can directly cause many sorts of disease like high blood pressure and diabetes. Another negative consequence of food like this is overeating. For example, some scientific reports show that spicy food can easily stimulate people's appetite, causing people to overeat unconsciously.

Cooking at home on my own, I can easily understand how much I need to eat and what I need to eat. For example, for my breakfast I often eat some food full of protein like eggs and for my lunch, I will focus on eating some fibers, fat and carbohydrate. In the evening, food full of protein and a glass of juice are what I usually have.

43. Describe an item you bought but do not often use 不常用的东东

I once bought an item that was in fact a massage chair for all the family members of course also including me since we might feel tired after study or work and every family member can use it in the daily life. I bought it in a shop which dealt in home appliances and I really expected to use it every day at that time.

环球在线

However, I do not often use it not only because I'm sometimes occupied with my study/work but also for the reason that it can work well at all. Specifically speaking, a week after I bought it, I found that my expectation on it was beyond what it could offer since there is much noise when we used it. The time that we set up was not accurate at all when it didn't work well. It even made me more upset since sometimes it was working well but sometimes it wasn't working at all.

Therefore, it would be a kind of burden to me for the reason that there might be no use if I go to the shop assistant. After another two weeks, my chance came as it didn't work totally. Then I went to ma ke a formal complaint to the shop assistant but actually after being repaired, the massage chair still got much noise. Subsequently, that's really an item that I don't often use now.

44. Describe a time when you received a very bad/horrible service 糟糕的服务

I once bought a massage chair for my mother. As it was on my mother's birthday, I said it was for my mother last year but actually it was for my whole family as well since every family member can use it in the daily life. I bought it in a shop which dealt in home appliances.

A week later, I found that our expectation on it was beyond what it could offer since there is much noise when we used it. The time that we set up was not accurate at all when it didn't work well. Then I went to make a formal complaint to the shop assistant, but to my surprise she was not patient or enthusiastic at all after I told her the problems.

I told her that when the machine was charged with electricity, there was nothing that we could see. Of course, I mean the light from the indicator. My complaint also included that when I pressed the button of "on", nothing happened at all. Without any doubt, she simply said there would be nothing she could do for me and her way of speaking was really rude, which was quite shocking to me. It was my first time to receive such a bad service. I was also given nothing positive during the whole process and the result was absolutely dissatisfactory.

47.Describe an outdoor sport you played for the first time 运动

In recent years rock climbing has become quite popular in my country and sometimes in some sports channels we can often see many rock climbing competitions. I firstly got some interest in this sport when I was living in the dorm of my college. Outside that dorm building, there was an outdoor rock climbing facility and a club usually had their training there.

I saw them climbing many times. At that time, I told myself that I really wanted to try it but I had to become a member of the club first and I was told that was really expensive. Therefore, I began to do some part-time jobs that I was able to do. Later, one day I began to do that with the money from my part-time jobs when I was still studying and living there. From doing that, I began to know this kind of sport would definitely be good for people's health and it was a very effective way to exercise our physical cooperation. That was what I felt.

As what I have learned when doing this outdoor sport, sometimes doing this sport need some protective gears, tools and chalk. Surely, for this sport, well, at that time I felt I also needed some strong muscles and even more braveness. Doing a sport like this for the first time, in my mind, helped me to release stress I got from my work/study. Anyway, I have tried it for many times till now and I hope I will continue doing that in my life.

50.Describe something you do to help you study or work 有助于学习或工作的东东或事

About something that I do to help my study/work, I really want to say something about reading books although it seems quite ordinary. When I was a pupil at school, I didn't have a good reading habit so at that time my parents kept helping me to develop my reading habit. During my childhood, I hated the control of my parents at the beginning but later when I really got that good reading habit, I couldn't thank my parents more. Therefore, till now when I have some problems in the study/work, what I think of first is normally to find a relevant book and try to find the solutions myself.

I think reading is really helpful for my study/work for several reasons. For one thing, doing this can help me to get some new knowledge that I didn't have before. The process is often quite short since the catalogues of books can often direct me to the answer. For another thing, during the study/work it's always better to try to find the answers ourselves instead of always finding help from others.

In this case, not only can I reduce the possible trouble that I may bring to others but also my ability of solving problems independently can also be raised to some extent. Besides, when I look up dictionaries after seeing some new words, I can often find something else that I can learn as well. This whole thing that I do really helps me to study not just academically but also in the life philosophy.

51. Describe a time when someone did not tell you the whole truth about something 没有告诉全部事实/说谎

Well, there do exist some times when I wasn't told the whole truth about something but what impressed me most was about my grandmother's physical health. I remember it was around six years ago when my mother suddenly became pretty busy and the situation lasted for several months.

Then I began to ask what happened to my mother but she didn't tell anything bad to me. What she told me was that she got extremely much work during that period of time and I didn't think too much after her explanation. Another two months later, my father told me my grandmother was under a surgery actually and my mother took care of her for most of the time during those several months. I became worried but my father told me my grandmother's surgery was quite successful but simply needed more care from the family. I was confused why my mother didn't tell me the whole truth and if something bad happened to my grandmother, I would be regretful.

Then, when I asked my mother about all about this finally, she told me why she hadn't told me the whole truth at that time. The most important reason was that my mother didn't hope that my grandmother's sickness might influence my review before the final exams at that time. Another reason was that my mother didn't want me to be over-worried about my grandmother's physical problems. Anyway, it was a white lie and I felt grateful for what my mother had done to me after knowing the reasons.

57.Describe a subject that you used to dislike but have interest in now 以前不喜欢而现在感兴趣的科目

When I was a freshman in the high school, I used to choose a science subject called space exploration as an elective one for a semester. However, I disliked that subject after taking the course because the teacher of that course was a bit boring and this course made me realize that this subject wasn't as mysterious as what I had imagined before.

However, a year later, when one of my friends persuaded me to choose the same subject again, I suddenly found what I was taught in the course was so interesting and of course if I have a chance to know more about this subject, I'd like to spend more time on it. For each class of this subject, our teacher gave us a topic for which we had a week to collect information, and then there would be time for us on the class to discuss or debate about the topic. Sometimes, we talked about the possibility of immigrating to other planets, star wars, and space travel. Most of topics were something that we knew nothing about before. However, reading more materials about topics, every student in the class showed sufficient interest and enthusiasm. We even began to worry about the future of human beings.

Now I really become interested in this subject and nowadays, some countries invest a great deal of money in space research. Of course, they have different purposes. Some countries like to beef up their national defense but others like to use space technology to threaten others' security. This subject is not only a scientific one but also a political and military one. I hope that I will have a chance to know more about it in my future.

59. Describe a kind of food that people eat during a special event 食物

Concerning a kind of food that people eat during a special event, I would like to say is Chinese Zongzi which is a kind of Chinese food made of glutinous rice. This kind of food can be divided into several minor types. For instance, some people would like to make Chinese Zongzi with both glutinous rice and meat while people in my hometown simply put some cooked dates into the glutinous rice and made Chinese Zongzi. Almost all the people in my country eat this kind of food during the special party of Duanwu Festival or we can call it Dragon Boat Festival as well.

There are some factors why people eat this food. To start with, a traditional legend of ancient patriot in my country let people in my country eat this kind of food during Dragon Boat Festival, which means we can show our respect to the patriot who sacrificed his life for loving the country.

Additionally, it has become a traditional culture for people to eat this kind of food during that special event, I mean the party especially for Duanwu Festival. It seems that we couldn't say we have celebrated this festival if we didn't eat Chinese Zongzi. How meaningful it is!

The historical event that I know something about but want to know more about is the one that happened in my hometown in 1948, the Liaoxi-Shenyang Campaign, the most significant campaign in Chinese civil war./The period of history that I like to talk about was within the year of 1948 during which the Liaoxi-Shenyang Campaign, which was one of the most significant campaigns in Chinese civil war, happened. After gaining victory in the Second World War, China at that time was controlled by two parties.

What I've already known about this historical period made me more interested in this history and want to know more about it. What I know is that political negotiation between them didn't work at all and as a result Chinese civil war took place. In 1948, two armies fought in order to seize the control of an important city in the northeastern part of China. The war lasted for two months and over one million soldiers were involved. In November, the PLA (People's Liberation Army) of my country won the great victory, wiping out a half million enemies and gaining control of all cities in the northeast. This campaign is thought to be significant in the history of Chinese Civil War and to be the foundation of winning the final victory as well.

To some extent, some historians believe that this campaign determined our history. I was born in the country in which some small battles of this campaign happened. When I was a pupil, every Tomb Sweeping Day my primary school organized us to sweep tombs of the heroes who died in this campaign. By doing so, all of us were taught a lot about history but this wasn't enough so I'd like to know more about his historical period.
